How to Apply

You are invited to apply for undergraduate or graduate admission at any time using Florida Tech's online application (floridatech.edu/apply) or the U.S. Common Application (commonapp.org). There is no application fee for undergraduate applicants. There is an application fee for graduate applicants.

Upon completing the online application, you must submit the following supplemental materials directly to the Office of Admissions:

- Official reports and/or transcripts of all examinations, diplomas and secondary schoolwork, translated into English
- English proficiency test scores (if not from an English-speaking curriculum) (floridatech.edu/international-admissions/english-proficiency)
- Photocopy of your passport's photo page

Florida Tech's goal is to admit students who we believe will find success at Florida Tech. For high school students, this typically means high achievement in a rigorous secondary-school curriculum, strong preparation in science and mathematics and a demonstrated passion for a particular field of study. Graduate applicants should review program-specific requirements at floridatech.edu/admissions/applying/graduate.
