Capitalization is the addition of unpaid interest to the principal balance of my loan. The principal balance of a loan increases when payments are postponed during periods of deferment or forbearance and unpaid interest is capitalized. As a result, more interest may accrue over the life of the loan, the monthly payment amount may be higher, or more payments may be required. The chart below provides estimates, for a $15,000 unsubsidized loan balance at a 9% interest rate, of the monthly payments due following a 12-month deferment. It compares the effects of paying the interest as it accrues, capitalizing the interest at the end of the deferment, and capitalizing interest quarterly and at the end of the deferment. My actual loan interest cost will depend on my interest rate, length of the deferment, and frequency of capitalization. Paying interest during the period of deferment lowers the monthly payment by about $18 and saves about $772 over the lifetime of the loan, as depicted in the chart below.

*Total amount repaid includes $1,350 of interest paid during the 12-month period of deferment.

A deferment is a period during which I am entitled to postpone repayment of the principal balance of my loan(s). The federal government pays the interest that accrues during an eligible deferment for all subsidized Federal Stafford Loans and for Federal Consolidation Loans for which the Consolidation Loan application was received by my loan holder (1) on or after January 1, 1993, but before August 10, 1993, (2) on or after August 10, 1993 if it includes only Federal Stafford Loans that were eligible for federal interest subsidy, or (3) on or after November 13, 1997, for that portion of the Consolidation Loan that paid a subsidized FFEL Program loan or a subsidized Federal Direct Loan. I am responsible for the interest that accrues during this period on all other FFEL Program loans.

The Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program includes Federal Stafford Loans (both subsidized and unsubsidized), Federal Supplemental Loans for Students (SLS), Federal PLUS Loans, and Federal Consolidation Loans.

Forbearance means permitting the temporary cessation of payments, allowing an extension of time for making payments, or temporarily accepting smaller payments than previously scheduled. I am responsible for paying the interest that accrues on my loan(s) during a forbearance. If I do not pay the interest that accrues, the interest may be capitalized.

The holder of my FFEL Program loan(s) may be a lender, guaranty agency, secondary market, or the U.S. Department of Education.

SECTION 7: ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR PARENT PLUS BORROWER DEFERMENT REQUEST

To qualify:

- If I have an outstanding Federal PLUS Loan which was first disbursed on or after July 1, 2008, I may defer repayment while the student for whom I obtained the loan is enrolled at least half time at an eligible school.
- I may also defer repayment of my parent Federal PLUS Loan(s) that was first disbursed on or after July 1, 2008 during the 6-month period after the student ceases to be enrolled at an eligible school on at least a half-time basis.
- If I have an outstanding balance on a FFEL Program loan which was made on or after July 1, 1987, and before July 1, 1993, or I had an outstanding balance on a FFEL Program loan made before July 1, 1993, when I obtained a loan disbursed on or after July 1, 1993, I may defer repayment of my loan(s) while the student for whom I borrowed a Federal PLUS Loan is dependent and is:
  - Enrolled at least half time at an eligible school.
  - Engaged full time in a rehabilitation training program. To qualify: (1) The training program must (a) be licensed, approved, certified or recognized as providing rehabilitation training to disabled individuals by the Department of Veterans Affairs or a state agency responsible for vocational rehabilitation, drug abuse treatment, mental health services, or alcohol abuse treatment programs; (b) provide services under a written individualized plan that specifies the date the services are expected to end; and (c) be structured in a way that requires a substantial commitment by the student to his/her rehabilitation. ("Substantial commitment" means a commitment of time and effort that would normally prevent a person from being employed 30 or more hours per week in a position expected to last at least 3 months.) (2) The dependent student must be either receiving, or scheduled to receive, these rehabilitation services.
