WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

ISSS 101: (Part of Orientation) Covers regulations and procedures for complying with the INS's Student/Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS). For F-1, F-2, and J-1 visa holders. This workshop is particularly pertinent to new students and scholars on campus, and is a required part of orientation.

Off-Campus Employment: Pertinent to F1 visa holders, this workshop covers the rules and procedures for obtaining off-campus work authorization both prior to completion of study and post completion of study, including curricular practical training and optional practical training.

Travel and Re-entry to the U.S.: ISSS will review the visa application process and issues surrounding re-entry into the U.S., such as security clearance, special registration procedures, legislation effecting visa application, travel to Canada and Mexico. Important if you will be traveling out of the U.S. especially if you will need to apply for a U.S. entry visa. Travel signatures may also be obtained at this workshop.

CINTAX Overview: Pertinent to H, F & J visa holders, this session provides an overview of the requirements and procedures for filing a non-resident U.S. Income Tax Return utilizing CINTAX (Complete International Tax Preparation Software.)
