Take the letter, your passport and visa documents to the nearest Social Security Administration office - SSA (address is on letter). At the SSA Office, you will fill in an application for the social security number. Ask for a receipt for your application. After your immigration information has been verified, you will receive your social security card with number in the mail. This could take a couple of weeks or more. IMPORTANT: after receiving your card, you are required to present your card to the Office of Human Resources. They will make a copy of your card for the purposes and return your card to you.
