I request approval to take the CLEP/DANTES examination indicated below. I understand Florida Tech policy states: Florida Tech expects students to take any CLEP/DANTES examinations before enrollment. Although a student may take these examinations while enrolled at Florida Tech, they may do so only with prior permission of their major department and college dean. Credit earned from these examinations are excluded from the three-course limit that applies to the study at another institution policy. Contact the Office of the Registrar for further information. Residency requirements apply when requesting to take CLEP/DANTES examinations while enrolled at Florida Tech.
