

The catalog course description may be changed at the discretion of the department offering the course as long as the content of the course remains consistent with the title. Significant content changes that alter the focus of the course require a new course number and title. The Director of Catalog and Graduate Information will submit a copy of all course description changes to the UGCC. Changes will be approved automatically without discussion unless a committee member requests otherwise in advance of the meeting.