REFERENCES: Please list on the Admissions Application the names and addresses of persons to whom you have given reference forms. Each should be well acquainted with your educational background, intellectual abilities, and personal character. Faculty whom you have worked under or taken courses from at the college(s) you previously attended are almost always the most useful references. Three letters of reference should be received by the deadline date, February 1, if the Application for Graduate Assistantship is to be considered for the fall semester.

A STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES of approximately 300 words concerning your past activities in your proposed or allied fields of study, along with your plans for graduate study and a professional career, must be submitted with this application. Questions regarding assistantships should be addressed to the head of the academic department or program.

I certify that the above statements are correct and complete.
