

What is Title IX?

The federal law prohibiting sex discrimination in educational institutions is Title IX of the Educational Amendments Act of 1972. Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex under any education program or activity operated by an institution receiving or benefiting from federal financial assistance. Sexual harassment, which includes sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination.

I acknowledge that I know how to access the Title IX website and that the Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Title IX Coordinators are listed there. I understand that if I have any future questions or if I encounter any problems, I can contact my supervisor, or any Deputy Title IX Coordinator or the Title IX Coordinator.

- I agree to abide by the principles that were explained in this training.
- I have had the opportunity to ask questions about Title IX.
- I understand my reporting obligation and where to report.
- I agree to and will comply with all Title IX policies, procedures, and other guidelines including the Sexual Misconduct Policy (found in the Student Handbook), Anti-Harassment Policy, Campus and Workplace Violence Prevention Policy, and the Sexual Abuse Policy (all found on the HR website).

It's On Us:

The "It's On Us" pledge is a personal commitment to help keep women and men safe from sexual assault. It's a promise not to be a bystander to the problem but to be a part of the solution.

I PLEDGE:

To RECOGNIZE that non-consensual sex is sexual assault.

To IDENTIFY situations in which sexual assault may occur.

To INTERVENE in situations where consent has not or cannot be given.

To CREATE an environment in which sexual assault is unacceptable and survivors are supported.
