

Electronic Thesis and Dissertation (ETD) Access

The Scholarship Repository of Florida Institute of Technology provides permanent, open access to journal articles, research reports, conference papers, data sets, theses and dissertations, and other scholarly works created by Florida Institute of Technology faculty and students. All theses and dissertations will be added to the Scholarship Repository.

This form is required and allows you to determine when your thesis will be accessible. Please discuss this with your thesis advisor. Complete the following steps:

- 1. Fill out the ETD Access Form, including your thesis/dissertation title and the reason for the embargo, if requested.
2. Sign the form.
3. Obtain your thesis advisor's signature.
4. Return this form to the Graduate Programs Office.

Student First Name: Student Last Name:

ID Number: Email:

Department:

Title of Thesis/Dissertation:

Office Use Only: Major Code: Licensing:

Select access Option 1 or Option 2

- Option 1: Immediate worldwide access - The thesis will be freely available on the Internet to all users. (Recommended)
Option 2: Embargoed access - Graduate students and their faculty advisor may request to embargo the release of their thesis or dissertation for up to 2 years (or longer by special request).

Form with radio buttons for embargo duration (Six months, One year, Two years, Other) and a section for Embargo Justification (Publishing process, Patent filing process, Other).

Student Signature Date

Thesis Advisor Signature Thesis Advisor (print name)