STUDENT PAYMENT SOLUTIONS AGREEMENT

THIS STUDENT PAYMENT SOLUTIONS AGREEMENT (the Payment Solutions Agreement”) is effective as of January 1, 2011 (the “Effective Date”) and is entered into by and between Florida Institute of Technology, an institution of higher education organized and operated under the laws of the State of Florida, (“University”), and PNC Bank, National Association, a national banking association, (“PNC Bank”). This Payment Solutions Agreement is an exhibit to and an integral part of the Banking Services Agreement dated January 1, 2011 between University and PNC Bank (the “Banking Services Agreement”). Capitalized terms used in this Payment Solutions Agreement and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning given them in the Banking Services Agreement.

WHEREAS, as part of the Banking Services Agreement, University desires that PNC process all payments and disbursements to students and, in conjunction therewith, provide an online service for those payments and disbursements (the “Payment Solutions Service”);

WHEREAS, PNC has agreed to provide the Payment Solutions Service;

NOW, THEREFORE, PNC Bank and University agree that a Payment Solutions Service shall be established subject to the terms and conditions of this Payment Solutions Agreement and the Banking Services Agreement, as applicable.

1. OBLIGATIONS OF PNC

During the term of this Payment Solutions Agreement, PNC will process payments and disbursements from the University to students. Examples of such payments include, but are not limited to, financial aid credits, tuition refunds, and emergency loans.

In order to process payments and disbursements, PNC will maintain a database with information, provided by the University, about the students. Such information shall include, but not be limited, to student’s name, ID#, payment preference, current mailing address and University e-mail address. PNC will provide the file layouts in order that the University can provide the information needed to process the payments. All such student information provided by University shall be maintained by University in a separately encrypted database and shall not be shared or used by PNC Bank for any purpose other than providing the Payment Solutions Services.

PNC will design and provide access to a cobranded Payment Solutions website which shall be linked to the University’s student website. The website and payment options shall be subject to the approval of the University. The website will allow payees to select how they wish to receive payments from the University from among the following options:

University Banking Services Agreement (DRAFT- CLEAN)
Florida Institute of Technology [01-06-11]
• Direct deposit into a PNC Checking Account
• ACH to other bank account
• Stored Value VISA® Card

If the student does not select a payment option on the website, the payment shall be mailed to the student’s address as provided by the University.

The timing of the Execution of Payment Delivery is based upon when the University delivers a Payment File and funding to PNC.

For purposes of this Payment Solutions Agreement the term Execution of Payment Delivery shall mean the point in time when a payment has been initiated by PNC and the disbursement begins its required form of transmission to the student payee.

2. OBLIGATIONS OF UNIVERSITY

University shall provide PNC with the necessary information and funds in order that PNC may initiate the payment to the student.

University Banking Services Agreement (DRAFT- CLEAN)
Florida Institute of Technology [01-06-11]
a. Information shall be provided via two types of encrypted electronic flat files:

(i) Student file – Student’s name, local address, student ID, e-mail address. This data will include whatever information is mutually deemed by University and PNC Bank to be necessary, and shall include the entire student population and all subsequent first-time students - freshmen, transfer, graduate, and professional; and

(ii) Payment File – Student ID, payment amount, and requested disbursement date.

b. Funding will be provided by a wire transfer through the Fedwire system to a designated account at PNC Bank. The method of funding may be changed by University by giving 15 days prior notice to PNC Bank, subject to such additional authorization verifications and certifications as PNC Bank may reasonably require. Regardless of the method of funding, payment must be received by PNC Bank at least one business day prior to the date that the funds will be disbursed to payee. Failure to provide funds at least one business day prior to the desired disbursement date will relieve PNC Bank from all responsibility to process the payment on the payment date desired by the University; however, PNC Bank shall be obligated to disburse said payment as soon thereafter as possible. Furthermore, nothing in this Agreement, or any course of dealing between us, shall be deemed to constitute a commitment or offer by PNC Bank to extend credit or grant overdraft privileges to the University even if PNC Bank has done so on one or more prior occasions.

3. TERM AND TERMINATION

The term of this Payment Solutions Agreement shall run concurrently with the Term of the Banking Services Agreement.

4. FEES

University agrees to pay PNC the fees outlined in Schedule 1 to this Payment Solutions Agreement. Fees will be invoiced on a monthly basis and will be due no later than 30 days from the date of the invoice.

5. PAYMENT SOLUTIONS ADMINISTRATOR

University shall designate a Payment Solutions Administrator to be the contact with PNC Bank in connection with the Payment Solutions Service. Such designation shall be in writing on the signature page of this Payment Solutions Agreement. The University hereby authorizes such Payment Administrator to give information and instructions to PNC Bank as may be required by the Payment Solutions Agreement or necessary for the operation and maintenance of the Payment Solution Service.
The Payments Solutions Administrator may be changed by the University with at least (7) seven days prior written notice to PNC Bank.

All actions or instructions of the Payment Solutions Administrator with respect to the Payment Solutions Service shall bind the University. The Payment Solutions Administrator may be changed by the University with at least seven (7) days prior written notice to PNC Bank.

6. FILE ERRORS

University acknowledges that PNC Bank will not be responsible for detecting errors in any file transmitted to PNC Bank for payment processing and disbursements, including but not limited to duplicate payments. University shall be solely responsible for any and all errors in files transmitted to PNC Bank (for example, an error in the amount of payment, name or address of payee, type of payment, etc.).

7. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Any and all information provided by University under Paragraph 2(a) above or maintained in the PNC database referenced in Paragraph 1 above, shall be used by PNC Bank solely to provide the Payment Solution Service in accordance with the terms of this Payment Solutions Agreement in accordance with the provision of Paragraph 1 of this Payment Solutions Agreement and paragraph 18 of the Banking Services Agreement.
